

I AM PYRAMID

The I AM PYRAMID supports you in becoming more aware of your own inner light power, in clearing and strengthening your light field, and in deepening your connection to your divine origin.

Through this product, you are reminded of who you truly are: pure divine light—not your mind and not your body.

It is suitable for use on the body (solar plexus), for meditation (held in the hands), or for enjoying the energy within its effective range of approximately 3 meters.

The shape of the I AM PYRAMID unites the harmonious field energy of a dodecahedron with the ascending structure of a pyramid that unfolds upward from within the body of the dodecahedron. At its center lies a three-dimensional engraved flame of light, which acts as an energetic carrier and concentrates the entire vibrational field of the object. Through the combination of sacred geometry, ELYMARA technology, and a clearly aligned programming, a highly coherent energy field emerges—one that reminds you of your own inner essence of light.
